Top bill of health for GP surgery

A South Tyneside GP surgery has been rated as “outstanding” by watchdogs.

The Care Quality Commission visited Dr Rahman & Staples, in Ellison View, Campbell Park Road, Hebburn, last month for an inspection.

Officers were impressed by the practice and gave it an “outstanding” rating and praised staff for understanding their responsibilities.

Dr David Hambleton, chief officer at NHS South Tyneside Clinical Commissioning Group (CCG), said: “This outstanding rating is great news for patients at Ellison View, for Hebburn, and for the borough generally. It is very clear that this is a patient-centred practice that is responding well to the needs of their patients.”
